WILLAMETTE NOTES

This afternoon the two lower classes of Willamette university, the freshmen and sophomores, will meet on the football field to decide the supremacy in the annual bag rush.

It has been the custom for the two classes to stage this contest every year early in the fall to settle any dispute that may have arisen in regard to the superiority of either class.

Three bags are filled with sawdust and placed in the center of the gridiron and the two teams line up at opposite sides of the field and the signal is given. The object is to put two of the three bags over the opponents' goal line. It is a contest that allows of vigorous exercise without the danger of physical harm.

Last year the freshmen won over the sophomores, and from the present outlook the freshmen are expected to repeat the performance.

The contest will be held at 3:30 and is open to all.

L. B. Rhoads, general secretary for the Y. M. C. A. in Oregon gave a short snappy talk to the Willamette students at chapel yesterday morning on the subject of efficiency in one's work.

He is in Salem in the interest of the Y. M. C. A. and will meet with the college Y. cabinet this afternoon to discuss the matter of re-organizing the organization and making it an efficient body.

Walter Gleiser is president of the college Y.; Joe Gerhart, vice-president; Walter Douglas, secretary; and Wesley Hammond, treasurer.

WAR HELPS JERSEY HORSE SHOW

Morristown, N. J., Oct. 8.—The entry list for the 18th annual horse show of the Morristown Field club, which opened here yesterday, was larger than in past years by reason of the international horse show not taking place this fall in London, thus keeping more fine animals in this country.

Will Not Grant Amnesty
To Convicted Miners

Denver, Colo., Oct. 8.—Blaming his change of mind upon premature publicity, Governor Carlson has announced that he will not grant amnesty to miners indicted in connection with the strike troubles of 1913-14. He declared he did not want to purchase industrial peace at such a price. This significant announcement followed the announcement of the supreme court releasing on bail John H. Lawson, high official of the United Mine Workers, convicted as strike leader for a mine guard's death. Lawson had not secured bail early today, but was arranging it and expected to be able to leave the Trinidad jail shortly. It was hinted he would never be retried.

Carlson once attacked the supreme court for disqualifying Judge Granby Hillyer from sitting in strike cases.

Falls City News
(Capital Journal Special Service.)
Falls City, Ore., Oct. 8.—Tuesday evening City Marshal Pat Murphy received a telephone call that the house of Lloyd Ellis who lives on the outskirts of town was entered by an intruder. Arriving at the home, he searched the place and found nothing there. Nothing was found missing and the appearance of the rooms and things not being molested, it is supposed that the intruders if there were any took alarm, and fled without recompensing themselves for their trouble. The account given of the affair is that Lloyd Ellis was out bird hunting and his wife and Velma Miller were alone in the house and heard a noise upstairs as though someone was walking across the floor. The sound of the steps began to come down the stairs and the two women fled from the house to that of Mrs. Mary Miller and informed the city marshal of the matter.

A stranger came to town Tuesday night and called the deputy sheriff of Independence up over the phone and told him that a man by the name of E. Bruce had stolen a double barrel Parker shotgun and other things from "Gypsy" Joe's camp in the Sisters basin and was heading towards Albany and for him to apprehend him. The description he gave of the man was that he was light complexioned, bald headed, gray mustache and blue eyes, nervous and when spoken to behind his back would wheel about in a quick manner, hug about five feet, eight inches and walked in a hobbling gait, wearing a white hat, dark coat, corduroy pants and medium weight shoes. The stranger informed Pat Murphy of the matter, but that executive was busy in other matters and was not able to give much attention to the matter. About 11 o'clock Pat saw the man who was then "three sheets in the wind" and as he didn't say anything about the affair he did not question him any further. Murphy saw the man who answered the description given, the next day or so after, but as he had no warrant he had no legal right to arrest him.

SALTS IF BACKACHE AND KIDNEYS HURT

Drink Lots of Water and Stop
Eating Meat for a While if Your Bladder Troubles
You

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks kidneys in their effort to filter it from blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sores, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatism twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water sends and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys also to neutralize acids in the urine as it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.
